(Minutes of the Thirtieth Meeting -- 1400 hours, 26 April 1955)
25X1A9a

Present: Messrs:

The following items of current interest were discussed:

1. A Chinese Nationalist report of a Communist paratroop division moving into the Shanghai-Hangchow area and a movement of Shantung garrison troops southward after being replaced by several divisions of Korean veterans. Naval units are being held in north Chekiang waters, according to the report.
 2. Satellite supplies of micro-wave equipment to China.
 3. The developing railroad car shortage in China.
 4. The sequence of transportation meetings being called in China, including civil air, railroad, and river transport groups.

6. Cement production at Haiphong during latter 1954 was about 4,000 tons per month below the 1953 figures.

7. The creation of a Third Ministry of Machine Building at Peking... to have responsibility for local-state, public-private, cooperative, and private machine and electrical equipment industries.
